OLD BUSINESS

- Ms. Geni Giannotti will receive an invitation to the June Board meeting.

MINUTES OF MEETING FOR MAY 15, 2014

NEW BUSINESS

- The Illitch Red Wings Redevelopment Project: Mr. Litt is a member of the Neighborhood Advisory Group for this project which ensures that potential hires come from the Detroit area as well as, studying the effects of this project to the area and people residing there. Mr. Litt stated that the Electrician's Local could be in a position to help the Detroit youth not only become electricians, but also find employment within this project.

Mr. Litt made a motion: The Board should invite the Business Agent of Local 58, Mr. Ric Preuss, and the Director of the Training Board, Mr. Gary Polulak, to the next Board meeting to see what can be done cooperatively with the Local to affect this change. The motion was seconded by Mr. McAlister. Motion Carried.

- A discussion of the Electrical Contractor fees came about: At one time, the Electrical Contractor Registration ($25.00) was dropped to coincide with what the State of Michigan Electrical Division was charging at that time. However, the State of Michigan's fees have gone up over the years, while Detroit's fees have remained the same.

Mr. Litt made a motion: The Board believes that Electrical Contractor Licenses and Electrical Contractor Registrations should be equal in price of $55.00, and Mr. Glenn Davis, Chief of the Construction Division, should be notified in writing. The motion was seconded by Marian Swint. Motion Carried.

- Mr. Durand Capers has completed a second 2011 Journeyman exam. Mr. Capers gave an overview of the test. Mr. McAlister moved to adjourn the test review and approval of the Journeyman exam to the June 19, 2014 meeting. Mr. Litt seconded the motion. Motion Carried.
- Accommodation Request: An applicant has applied for an accommodation for more time in regard to the Journeyman exam, based on English being their second language. The Board will revisit its accommodation policy and submittal form in regard to this request, and table this discussion for the June meeting.
