Community Reinvestment Act:
A Webinar for Community Based Organizations

“What is CRA?” and Why does it matter to CBOs?”

Tuesday, March 31, 2020

- Increase awareness of the opportunities and resources available under CRA
- empower your organization to more effectively communicate with banks
- increase your ability to obtain potential funding of programs that benefit low- and moderate-income individuals and communities.

11:00am Eastern

Join the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago for the first of a four-part web series focused on working with financial institutions to help meet the credit, service and investment needs in your community.

This first webinar will:

- review the CRA definition of community development
- discuss the components necessary to building collaborative relationships with financial institutions
- share examples of how improved understanding of CRA helped CBOs develop collaborations with local institutions
- provide Q&A segments with regulators

- Please consider sending in questions during registration in advance of the event.

Intended Audience: Non-bank organizations in both rural and urban communities, such as non-profits, foundations, local government, and community service, faith-based, small business and economic development organizations.
